great idea...we give a 'graphic' warning....we should give a tissue warning!

chesrite @chesrite

Okay @mariastephanos and @edwcvb...Why weren't we ready with tissues?! I love that Mayor. I took my dog for a drive everyday to go to McD's or Burger King. He only had 6 wks. @MetMikeWCVB you got to hide in the corner so we didn't see tears. Maria...this Mayor ..a story..in him?

DOJ released a new Carter Page document in my FOIA lawsuit: A draft of the FISA application. It appears identical to the final, except unsigned.

Notwithstanding @realDonaldTrump's supposed declassification order, the redactions are identical too. kingpin.cc/wp-content/upl...

With fires now burning to the north of us, resources are already being stretched thin. We have increased staffing to provide a bigger 'punch' if we pop a fire. Let's be fire-smart, San Diego!

3. After I was exposed to fumes on my last 4 flights, my back & knees started giving me trouble because hip kept getting out of alignment. I learned a few exercises to pop it back in place. I learned toxicity weakens ligaments and muscles.

#WoolseyFire Someone asked me to do a quick map of the fire. It's based on heat signatures and knowing it hit PCH. Roughly 60,000 acres.

Interesting website, only commercial broadcast stations but the audio is very good and many radio stations listed. My thought is when 'world breaking' news happens its a quick way to go to radio stations of that city or country to hear live reports radio.garden

2. Everything matters. One thing leads to another. First the uniform weakened my immune system. That made me "sensitized" to certain chemicals. You need a weakened immune system to become sensitive to electromagnetic fields. MCS and EHS travel the same path.
